

Riley Allred

555-359-0078

rjallred02@gmail.com

Winter Park, Florida

Copy Editor:

Emerging writer passionate about all areas of the written form. Specializes in short film/story writing of all forms. Available for contract and full time remote or hybrid positions.

Skills and Applications:

Adobe Photoshop, Final Draft, Narrative writing, Graphic design, problem-solving, active listening, creative content, editing, proofreading, media communications, customer service, photo and video editing, revision, collaboration, research.

Education:

Full Sail University, Media Communications, Creative Writing concentration BFA.

Experience:

Familiarization with written forms, genres, and styles. Experienced in creative presentation, English composition, literary techniques, creative skills development, multimedia storytelling, and media communications.

Literary Techniques and Story Development - 4 credits - March 2024

Studied a broad spectrum of authorial choices and literary techniques that bring meaning and direction to stories. Studied the employment of literary devices that authors use to play upon their readers' conscious and unconscious experiences and archetypes.

Media Communications and Technology - Course Director Award - June 2024

Studied the history of contemporary forms of media communication. Examined a variety of analytical and strategic perspectives while being introduced to industry-production tools and techniques. Studied real-world media campaigns and earned a course director award for my work.

English Composition - 4 credits - March 2024

A study of the development of ideas, the control of voice and style of writing, and thesis formulation. Sentence and paragraph composure with a focus on representing ideas and creating rhetorical cohesion. Selecting, writing, and refining written works.